

Bancon Southern Africa Domestic Services (Pty) Ltd (“Bancon SA”) PAIA manual

Please take note that our PAIA manual is subject to our website terms and conditions, as well as our data privacy and retention policy.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2000 including its regulations (“PAIA”) requires Private Bodies to compile a Manual setting out the procedure and requirements to be adhered to in seeking to obtain access to information held by that Private Body. The section also stipulates the minimum requirements a Manual has to comply with. To this end section 51 of PAIA requires the Manual to contain, amongst others, the following:

- The postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the head of the body;
- Contact details of the Head of the Private Body;
- Categories of information available without formal request, if any;
- A description of the records available in accordance with other legislation;
- Sufficient detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of the Private Body;
- A description of the categories of subjects and of the information or categories of information;
- A description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- Such other information as may be prescribed.

1.2 POPIA requirements pertaining to the processing of information

- Purpose of processing:

the Protection of Personal Information Act (PoPIA), Personal Information must be processed for a specified purpose. The purpose for which Personal Information is processed by Bancon SA will depend on the nature of the Personal Information and the particular Data Subject. This purpose is ordinarily disclosed, explicitly or implicitly, at the time when Personal Information is collected.

- Access to Personal Information:

POPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon proof of identity, request the Responsible Party to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the Data Subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information. Further, POPIA provides that where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, the Responsible Party must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the Data Subject pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

- Categories of Data Subjects:

Bancon SA holds information and records on the following categories of Data Subjects:

- a) Employees / personnel of Bancon SA
- b) Clients of Bancon SA required for purposes of fulfilling any agreements
- c) Any third parties and/or suppliers with whom Bancon SA conducts its business services
- d) Contractors of Bancon SA
- e) Partners and agents
- f) Service providers of Bancon SA.

(This list of categories of Data Subjects is non-exhaustive)

- The categories of recipients to whom the information is supplied:

Depending on the nature of the Personal Information, Bancon SA may supply information or records to the following categories of recipients:

- a) Statutory oversight bodies, regulators, law enforcement agencies or judicial commissions of enquiry making a request for information
- b) Any court, administrative or judicial forum, arbitration, statutory commission, or ombudsman making a request for personal information or discovery in terms of the applicable rules (e.g. the Information Regulator)
- c) South African Revenue Services, or another similar authority
- d) Emergency Service Organisations (if you make an emergency call), including your approximate location
- e) Anyone making a successful application for access in terms of PAIA
- f) Subject to the provisions of POPIA and the National Credit Act No. 34 of 2005, Bancon SA may share information about a client's creditworthiness with any credit bureau or credit provider.

- Planned transborder flows of information:

If you are visiting our websites from a country other than South Africa the various communications will necessarily result in the transfer of information across international boundaries.

Bancon SA may also need to transfer your information to other Bancon SA group companies or service providers in countries outside South Africa, in which case we will fully comply with applicable data protection legislation. This may happen if our servers or suppliers and service providers are based outside South Africa, or if our services are hosted in systems or servers in Bancon SA or Bancon SA Operating Companies outside South Africa and/or if you use our services and products while visiting countries outside these areas. Other countries outside South Africa may not have data protection laws which are similar to those of South Africa, however, Bancon SA will ensure that your Personal Information is protected and enter into appropriate agreements to achieve this.

- Security measures implemented to ensure the confidentiality and privacy of the information which is to be processed:

Bancon SA is committed to implementing leading data security safeguards. For this reason, Bancon SA has appointed an information officer who constantly review and improve its measures to protect your Personal Information from unauthorised access, accidental loss, disclosure or destruction.

If Bancon SA has an agreement with another organisation to provide it with services or a service on its behalf to process your Personal Information, then Bancon SA will make sure they have appropriate security measures and only process your Personal Information in the way we have authorised them to. These organisations will not be entitled to use your Personal Information for their own purposes. If necessary, our information officer will conduct a due diligence check on them to make sure they meet the security requirements we have set.

Communications over the internet (such as emails) are not secure unless they have been encrypted. Further, your communications may go through a number of countries before being delivered, as this is the nature of the internet. Consequently, we cannot accept responsibility for any unauthorised access or loss of Personal Information that is beyond our control.

- Planned transborder flows of information:

If you are visiting our websites from a country other than the country in which our servers are located, the various communications will necessarily result in the transfer of information across international boundaries.

We may need to transfer your information to other Bancon SA group companies or service providers in countries outside South Africa, in which case we will fully comply with applicable data protection legislation. This may happen if our servers or suppliers and service providers are based outside South Africa, or if our services are hosted in systems or servers outside South Africa if you use our services while visiting countries outside this area. These countries may not have data-protection laws which are similar to those of South Africa. However, Bancon SA will ensure that we use adequate security controls.

5. REQUESTING ACCESS TO INFORMATION

5.1 How to request your information?

In order to ensure that Bancon SA complies with the Act, Bancon SA has appointed an Information Officer as the entry point through which all data related requests can be channelled.

5.2 Purpose

The Act provides that a person may only request information in terms thereof if that information is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

Further, PoPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon proof of identity, request the Responsible Party to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the Data Subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information, and may, where necessary, request the correction, destruction or deletion of his or her personal information. PoPIA further provides that where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her/it the Responsible Party:

- Must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service; and
- May require that the requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

5.3 Categories of Requestors

The capacity under which a Requester requests documentation / information will determine the category he or she falls in. Please note that the Requester category has a bearing on the conditions of access to the information.

Requesters have been classified into four categories:

- A Personal Requester: requests information about himself/herself/itself.
- A Representative Requester: requests information relating to and on behalf of someone else.
- A Third Party Requester: requests information about another person.
- A Public Body: requests information in the public interest.

5.4 Third party Notification

Where the records requested relates to third parties the Information Officer will:

- inform the third party that he or she is considering a request for access to its records and describe the content of the record;
- furnish the name of the requester;
- describe the type of information in question;
- if the disclosure is in the public interest, describe circumstances under which the disclosure is made; and
- inform the third party that it may, within 21 days after the third party is informed:
 - a) make written or oral representations to the head why the request for access should be refused; or
 - b) give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester.

6. REQUESTS

6.1 Completion of Form C

Any request for information in terms of the Act must be submitted in terms of Form C (a copy of the form is enclosed as Appendix B hereto). These forms are available on request from the Bancon SA Information Officer and upon payment of a prescribed fee as contemplated by the applicable legislation.

Form C must be completed in full and returned to the Bancon SA Information Officer.

6.2 Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the Requester. In view hereof, a Requester will, in addition to Form C, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of their Identity Document or other legal form of identification.

Note: Information will not be furnished unless a person clearly provides sufficient particulars to enable the company to identify the right the Requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation of why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

6.3 Checklist for submission of information requests (Form C)

- Number B – particulars of person requesting access to the records.
- Number C – only if the request is a third party request.
- Number D1 – the time period as well as type of information required.
- Number D2 – ref. number that was provided by Bancon SA (if available).
- Number E – exemption from paying the fees, if so the client will need to supply his/her salary advice and if the client is married, a copy of the spouse's salary advice will need to be supplied as well.
- Number F1 – copy in a computer readable form (memory stick or compact disc).
- Number G1 – indicate which right is to be exercised or protected.
- Number G2 – the reason for which this information is required (we will not accept 'personal reasons' as a reason).
- Number H – preferred method of communication.
- Documentation signed and every page must be initialled.

6.4 Affidavit

- Number 3 – choose a, b or c.
- Number 6 – choose a, b or c.
- Number 7 – only in the case of a Third Party request.
- The affidavit must be commissioned by a Commissioner of Oath (eg SAPS or Notary).
- NB the following information must also be attached:
 - A certified copy of your identity document. Please also initial the identity document.

7. FEES

In terms of POPIA, a data subject has the right to request Bancon SA to confirm, free of charge, whether or not it holds personal information about the data subject. However, both in terms of PAIA and PoPIA, Bancon SA is entitled to levy a prescribed fee (as set out below) for the provision of records of personal information about the data subject or third parties in its possession. The fees that may be charged have been published by the Minister of Justice and Correctional Services.

8. REQUESTS

8.1 Bancon SA will use personal information only for the purposes for which it was collected or agreed and only for the agreed timeframe.

8.2 Bancon SA and / or third parties will only process special personal information if:

- 8.2.1 The consent of the data subject has been obtained;
- 8.2.2 Directed by an order of court; and/or
- 8.2.3 It is necessary to disclose such information in order to provide services to the data subject under an agreement (who is already a customer of Bancon SA).

8.3 Bancon SA may disclose personal information to:

- 8.3.1 contractors, suppliers and partners who provide business, marketing, and other services to us;
- 8.3.2 a third party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of all or any portion of our business, assets or stock; and
- 8.3.3 regulators, courts/tribunals, and other governmental authorities of any country, or other recipients as we believe to be necessary or appropriate under applicable law.

9. IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS

All requests complying with the requirements set out above will be processed and considered expeditiously.

If the request for access is granted then Bancon SA will advise the Requestor on the following:

- the prescribed fee for accessing the information or documentation.
- payable deposit fee and balance outstanding.
- the form in which access will be given.
- the right to lodge an internal appeal against the access fee to be paid or the form of access to be granted.

If the request for access is refused then Bancon SA will advise the Requestor about the reasons for refusal of access and may advise the Requestor to lodge an application with the Information Regulator if all internal processes have been exhausted.

Chapter 4 of the PAIA Act stipulates the following grounds for refusing requests for information:

- protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person.
- protection of commercial information of a third party.
- protection of certain confidential information of a third party.
- protection of safety of individuals and protection of property.
- protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings.
- commercial information of the Private Body.
- protection of research information of a third party and of the Private Body.

These grounds of refusal are also endorsed under PoPIA.

Bancon SA will give the Requester a written notice of the decision within 30 days after the decision is made. In case of a request being refused, the notification will include the reasons for the refusal. Bancon SA may extend the 30 day notice period for a further period not exceeding 30 days due to the nature of the request and the amount of time required to gather the requested information. The Requester will however be given notice of the extension prior to the expiry of the 30 day period and provided with reasons for the extension.

The Act makes provision for the lodgement of complaint against:

- Access fee charged or the form of access granted.
- Refusal of the request to grant access.
- Decision to extend the 30 days' period for granting the requested access.
- Form in which access is granted.

A complaint or an internal appeal must:

- be lodged within 30 days after the decision is communicated to the Requestor;
- be sent to admin_za@bancon-it.com.
- identify the subject of the complaint or internal appeal and state the reasons for the complaint or internal appeal;
- be accompanied by the prescribed appeal fee as prescribed in paragraph 10 above; and
- specify a postal address or electronic mail for the return of the decision.

10. PROCEDURE

10.1 Access to records held by Bancon SA:

The following procedure must be followed when requesting information and/or documents:

- a) The request must be sent in the prescribed form to admin_za@bancon-it.com.
- b) The Requestor must provide proof of identity of the person requesting the record.
- c) If the request is made on behalf of another person, the Requestor must provide proof of the capacity in which he/she/it is making the request.

10.2 The following procedure will be followed by Bancon SA after receipt of the request for access:

- a) Once a request is made, the Requestor will receive notice from Bancon SA about the prescribed fee.
- b) The prescribed fee must be paid before the request is processed.
- c) Payment of this fee should be made as directed by the notice.
- d) After receiving payment of a deposit fee Bancon SA will then make a decision in respect of the request and will notify the Requestor of the decision.
- e) If the request is granted then the Requestor might be required to pay a further access fee for the search, reproduction and preparation of the record as well as for the time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and to prepare the record for disclosure to the Requestor (in terms of section 54(6) of the PAIA Act).
